

Labour Department to hold occupational health public talks â€‹The Labour Department (LD) will hold a public talk entitled "First aid in the workplace" on October 21 (Thursday) at 3.30pm. The talk will introduce basic first aid knowledge and explain how to assist and handle injured employees in workplace accidents through case illustrations.

The LD will hold another talk, entitled "Occupational health for cleansing workers", on October 29 (Friday) at 3.30pm. The talk will introduce the occupational health hazards and the preventive measures of cleaning workers to enhance their awareness on occupational health. Demonstration and practice of workplace exercise will also be included.

Both talks will be given by the LD's Occupational Health Nurse in Cantonese at the Lecture Hall of the Hong Kong Space Museum, 10 Salisbury Road, Tsim Sha Tsui. Admission is free but pre-registration is required. On-site registration is not available. Infection control measures taking into account the latest epidemic developments will be adopted at the venue. For enquiries or registration, please call 2852 4040.
