

Labour Department to resume public occupational health talks

In view of the latest situation of COVID-19, the Labour Department today (October 23) said that its public occupational health talks will be resumed in November.

The following talks will be given in November:

1. November 3: "Occupational Health for Workers in Pre-primary Educational Services" (Activity Room I, G/F, Hong Kong Central Library)
2. November 13: "Infection Control in the Workplace" (Lecture Hall, Hong Kong Space Museum)
3. November 19: "Work and Diabetes Mellitus and Hypertension" (Activity Room I, G/F, Hong Kong Central Library)
4. November 23: "Prevention of Lower Limb Disorders and Guidance Notes on Standing at Work" (Lecture Hall, Hong Kong Space Museum)

The talks will be conducted in Cantonese. Admission is free. Infection control measures taking into account the latest epidemic situation will be adopted at the venues. For enquiries or registration, please call 2852 4040.
