

Labour Department's occupational health public talk cancelled

â€œIn view of the latest COVID-19 situation, the Labour Department announced today (February 14) that the occupational health public talk entitled "Prevention of Upper Limb Disorders" on February 25 at the Lecture Theatre of the Hong Kong Central Library has been cancelled. Enrolled participants will be informed of the cancellation individually.