

Land deal paves way for cutting edge government hub in Manchester

The Government Property Agency has exchanged contracts to acquire five acres of the former Central Retail Park in Ancoats, from Manchester City Council.