

Land purchased for flagship levelling up site in Darlington

The government's levelling up programme is moving further ahead today, with land for the permanent site of the new Darlington Economic Campus being purchased.