

Latest arrangements for postal services

â€‹In view of the latest epidemic situation, Hongkong Post announced today (February 11) that the business hours of all post offices will be adjusted from tomorrow (February 12) until further notice.

To balance the public demand for counter services of post offices and the need to reduce the risk of the epidemic further spreading in the community, all post offices will maintain their normal opening hours but will advance their closing hours to 4pm from Monday to Friday. The business hours on Saturdays will remain unchanged, except for the General Post Office and Tsim Sha Tsui Post Office which will continue to advance their closing hours to 1pm on Saturdays. The General Post Office will continue to be closed on Sundays. Mobile post office services remain unchanged.

For enquiries, members of the public may call the Hongkong Post enquiry hotline at 2921 2222.
