Lunchtime Recital with SeaTangle

Tom and Kayren Hall, the husband and wife duo who make up SeaTangle, have been involved with music for over fifteen years in the East Neuk of Fife where they play regularly.

They perform a wide range of music which includes traditional Scottish songs and tunes, and a wide variety of other songs gathered along the way.

Tom, a valued member of the Wighton Singers, sings and plays guitar, drawing on a background which includes Sixties pop, amateur operatic shows, and also helping organise and run music sessions in the East Neuk, while Kayren plays fiddle and djembe.

Admission free, donations welcome.
