

Latest findings from COVID-19 study published: January 2021

The findings from Imperial College London and Ipsos MORI show infections remained very high throughout this period with 1 in 64 people infected.