

Letter from Housing Minister on ventilation guidance for landlords and residents to help combat the transmission of COVID-19 during winter

Letter to all local authorities in England to summarise ventilation guidance and encourage behaviours by landlords and residents to help reduce the transmission of COVID-19 in residential settings.