

Letter from the Deputy Prime Minister to local authorities: Playing your part in building the homes we need

The Deputy Prime Minister Angela Rayner has written to all local authority Leaders in England about the Government's plan to build the homes the country needs.