

Letter from the Deputy Prime Minister to local authority leaders, mayors and chief executives of local authorities: Building the homes we need

The Deputy Prime Minister Angela Rayner has written to local authority leaders, Metro Mayors and chief executives about the government's plan to build the homes the country needs.