

Letter to police on AI enabled facial recognition searches

The Policing Minister writes to police chiefs to set out the importance of harnessing innovative technologies to support police in preventing and solving crimes