

Letter to the Secretary of State for Health and Social Care about PCR testing

The CMA has published its advice to the Health Secretary in response to his commission to review the PCR travel test market.