

Letters from the Biometrics and Surveillance Camera Commissioner April 2022

The Biometrics and Surveillance Camera Commissioner, Professor Fraser Sampson, writes to the Minister for the Cabinet Office and Cabinet Secretary on 21 April 2022 regarding human rights and security issues in public procurement of surveillance technology.

The commissioner also writes to the Secretary of State for Levelling Up, Housing and Communities on 22 April 2022 regarding human rights and security issues in public procurement of surveillance technology.

Note: references to 'Common Home Affairs Committee' should read 'Foreign Affairs Committee'.