

Library patrons invited to complete reader opinion survey

The Hong Kong Public Libraries (HKPL) of the Leisure and Cultural Services Department is inviting library patrons to take part in a reader opinion survey. From today (October 1) to October 31, patrons are welcome to express their views on library services and make suggestions for the improvement of library facilities and services at the HKPL website (www.hkpl.gov.hk/en/about-us/services/rlg-feedback-form.html), or by completing the printed feedback form available at all public libraries in Hong Kong.

For enquiries, please call 2921 0208 during office hours.
