

Licence of employment agency revoked

â€‹The Labour Department (LD) today (August 10) reminded operators of employment agencies (EAs) to conduct their business in compliance with the law and the requirements of the Code of Practice for EAs (the Code) at all times.

The LD has revoked the EA licence of Ka Wo Consultants Limited located in Causeway Bay. The EA failed to meet the requirement set out in the Code to draw up service agreements with employers. The licensee concerned had appealed to the Administrative Appeals Board but the appeal was dismissed.

Under section 53(1)(c)(iva) of the Employment Ordinance (E0), the Commissioner for Labour (the Commissioner) may revoke the licence of an EA if he is satisfied that the licensee concerned has not complied with the Code.

"The Code sets out the salient legal requirements that EA operators must observe in operating their business, as well as the standards which the Commissioner expects from EAs. The Employment (Amendment) Ordinance 2018, which came into effect on February 9, 2018, stipulates that the Commissioner may refuse to issue or renew a licence, or may revoke a licence, if he is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the licensee or the person intending to be the licensee of an EA, or a related person of or an individual employed by the licensee or the person intending to be the licensee has contravened any provision of Part XII or any regulation made under section 62 of the E0, such as overcharging job seekers or operating an EA without a licence, or has not complied with the Code issued under section 62A(1) of the E0," the spokesman said.

The LD has revoked the licences of a total of 12 EAs since 2020, including the above case.
