

Liverpool Women's Hospital terror attack: victims' compensation

News story

How to apply for compensation if you were a victim of the terrorist attack in Liverpool on 14 November 2021

We offer our sympathy to those affected by this horrific attack.

If you have been injured in this incident you can apply to the Criminal Injuries Compensation Authority (CICA) for compensation.

Compensation is payable to applicants who meet the eligibility criteria of the Criminal Injuries Compensation Scheme 2012.

You don't need a paid representative, such as a solicitor or claims management company, to apply for compensation. Free independent advice may be available from the Victim and Witness Information website or other charitable organisations.

If you have been directly affected by this incident you can find out more about the Scheme and how to apply on GOV.UK. Alternatively, you can call the CICA helpline on 0300 003 3601.

Published 15 November 2021