

Living Together : An Exhibition on Housing in Dundee

From the Curator of Museum Services at the University of Dundee :

Using photographs, artworks and architects' designs, the latest exhibition in the Lamb Gallery at the University of Dundee explores some of the most distinctive forms of houses in Dundee, with a particular focus on communal and social housing – from Victorian tenements to pioneering council houses, post-war multistories, student halls of residence and more.

The exhibition Living Together features material from our own and private collections as well as the University Archives, Dundee City Archives and Dundee Central Library Local History Centre. It has been created to accompany the AHRA Conference on Architecture and Collective Life taking place in Dundee from 21st to 23rd November. The exhibition is now open and runs until 25th January 2020 – opening times are on the poster and admission is free.

More information is available here.