

Liz Copper and Lady Moira Andrews have been reappointed as members of the Advisory Council on National Records and Archives.

News story

The Secretary of State has reappointed Liz Copper and Lady Moira Andrews as members of the Advisory Council on National Records and Archives for a term of four years commencing 22 August 2022 until 21 January 2026.

Liz Copper

Liz is a Senior BBC Journalist. She has more than 25 years' experience as a reporter and producer. She has worked across television, radio and digital platforms primarily in the Midlands and North of England.

Liz was called to the Bar of England and Wales in 2014 and completed pupillage in 2017. She is a member of the Denning Society. She also serves as a volunteer for the charity Sight Support Derbyshire.

Lady Moira Andrews

Moira is a lawyer and Company Director of Praetor Consultants and a Partner at IMA Partners, as well as holding a variety of advisory roles and sitting as Chair of the Global Foundation for the Elimination of Domestic Violence. Members of the Advisory Council on National Records and Archives are remunerated £386 per day.

These reappointments have been made in accordance with the Cabinet Office's Governance Code on Public Appointments. The process is regulated by the Commissioner for Public Appointments. The Government's Governance Code requires that any significant political activity undertaken by an appointee in the last five years is declared. This is defined as including holding office, public speaking, making a recordable donation or candidature for election. Liz Copper has declared no activity.

Published 15 April 2022