

Local dance talents to give free performances to celebrate 30th anniversary of Hong Kong Cultural Centre

Presented by the Leisure and Cultural Services Department, the dance event "Fall4Dance" will be held in October at the Hong Kong Cultural Centre (HKCC) to celebrate the 30th anniversary of the HKCC. Admission is free.

The event has "Time" as its theme and creative concept to reflect the HKCC's vital role in developing local performing arts.

The main stage of the event will be located at the Piazza for showcasing dance pieces from several local arts groups including Unlock Dancing Plaza, PassoverDance, Y-Space, Studiodanz, DancingAngels, the School of Dance of the Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts and Fringe Mime And Movement Laboratory. Furthermore, five independent choreographers, namely Kenneth Sze, Max Lee, Lee Ka-ki, Kenny Leung and Blue Ka Wing, will perform at the 4/F Foyer.

Details of the event are as follows:

October 11 (Friday) 7.15pm	4/F Foyer, HKCC
October 12 (Saturday) 3pm	Piazza A, HKCC
October 12 (Saturday) 5.30pm and 7.15pm	4/F Foyer, HKCC
October 13 (Sunday) 2.15pm	4/F Foyer, HKCC

The Piazza programme will run for two and a half hours, and performances at the 4/F Foyer will be approximately 30 minutes per session.
