

Local land charges achieve a century

Broxbourne in Hertfordshire has become the 100th local authority to migrate its local land charges data to the national Local Land Charges Register.