

Lord Chancellor orders urgent action to improve HMP Wandsworth

Additional staff and extra funding are being deployed at one of the most troubled prisons in the country following a damning inspection report which highlighted significant concerns.