

Louise Haigh responds to BT's £42 million fine from Ofcom

Louise

Haigh, Labour's Shadow Minister for the Digital Economy, commenting on BT's £42 million fine from Ofcom, said:

"It's right that Ofcom has taken this so seriously. The sluggish upgrade of our digital infrastructure has already left swathes of the UK behind; and now it's clear that BT failed to give proper notice that it was not going to meet roll out deadlines, failed to pay compensation and then did not comply quickly and fully with the information demands Ofcom made of them.

"It's just not good enough that time again promises on advertising speeds and roll-out have been broken. It's right that BT is being made to pay for these failures."
