

Lunar New Year auction of vehicle registration marks postponed

To reduce the risk of the spread of the novel coronavirus in the community, the Transport Department (TD) today (February 5) announced that the Lunar New Year auction of vehicle registration marks scheduled for February 8 at the Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre will be postponed. Applicants will be notified by the TD of the details of the re-scheduled auction later.

For enquiries, please call 2804 2600.