

MacLehose Trail evokes memories

Stretching from Sai Kung on the east coast to Tuen Mun in the west, the whopping 100km-long MacLehose Trail is the longest and first long-distance hiking trail in Hong Kong and is celebrating its milestone 40th anniversary this year.

News.gov.hk spoke to two Agriculture, Fisheries and Conservation Department staff who shared their experience of helping to build the iconic trail.

The story appears on news.gov.hk today (December 15) in text and video format.
