

Magistrates to be able to record their own verdicts in Single Justice cases

Magistrates will soon have the option to record case outcomes for themselves when deciding cases using the Single Justice Procedure (SJP).