

Mainland Olympians display their talent at variety show (with video)

The Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games Mainland Olympians delegation shared with spectators their experiences and feelings on competitions at the "Mainland Olympians Variety Show" at Queen Elizabeth Stadium this afternoon (December 4).

The variety show, which is the climax of the three-day visit by the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games Mainland Olympians delegation, staged exciting programmes. The Mainland elite athletes who took part in the show today demonstrated their talent in various sports and skill contests. They also had a friendly chat and skills sharing with Hong Kong athletes.

While an audience of around 1 900 enjoyed this fabulous variety show at Queen Elizabeth Stadium, it was also broadcast live on TV.

The delegation will leave Hong Kong tomorrow (December 5) afternoon.
