

Major Military Exercise Strengthens UK Ties in Southeast Asia

UK military personnel from all three services have taken part in a major joint exercise in Southeast Asia this week, strengthening ties with military partners crucial to upholding stability in the region.