

Man apprehended in North East illegal fishing investigation

The Environment Agency has apprehended a man in Sunderland and seized an illegal net following a report of illegal fishing.