Man holding charged with attempted murder

Police today (March 11) laid a holding charge against a 23-year-old man with one count of attempted murder.

The man was arrested yesterday (March 10) in suspected connection with an attempted murder case in Central on March 9 evening, in which a 70-year-old man was rushed to Queen Mary Hospital in unconscious state and has remained in critical condition after undergoing surgery yesterday.

The case will be mentioned at Eastern Magistrates' Courts tomorrow morning (March 12).
