

Man who illegally imported unlicensed medicines from India, the Middle East and the Far East sentenced

A man who had unlicensed medicines sent to his parents' address, has been sentenced at Southwark Crown Court to a term of imprisonment, having earlier been found guilty of criminal activity in May. The sentencing follows an ...