

Manchester company fined over £870,000 for illegal waste exports

A director and his Manchester-based company have been hit with substantial fines following a significant breach of environmental regulations.