

Manchester firm which targeted Germans with fake prepaid card scam is shut down

Advantia Card Limited was subject to a winding-up order following more than 190 complaints from members of the public in Germany