

Manchester tech companies shut down for suspected monthly direct debit scam

Consumers appeared to be signed up for monthly payments without their consent