

Media Freedom

We support media freedom and are concerned to hear reports of assaults on cameramen working in good faith for the international media in Cuba. We await clarification and reiterate that freedom of speech is a human right.

Published 23 November 2020