

Meet Southport's community heroes

We spoke to three community heroes who shared why they felt compelled to help following the devastating events that took place in Southport.