

MHRA launches new Strategy for Improving Safety Communications on World Patient Safety Day: Improving information to patients and healthcare professionals

New strategy aims to transform the way we provide information on the risks and safety of medicines and medical devices.