

MHRA response to the precautionary suspensions of COVID-19 Vaccine AstraZeneca

It has not been confirmed that the reports of blood clots were caused by the AstraZeneca COVID-19 vaccine. People should still go and get their COVID-19 vaccine when asked to do so.