

Deliveroo joins UAE Ramadan campaign to provide sustainable food aid

Thu, 2023-03-30 20:44

DUBAI: Food delivery company Deliveroo has announced its participation in the UAE's "1 Billion Meals Endowment" campaign, Emirates News Agency reported on Thursday.

The Ramadan campaign, launched by Dubai Ruler Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al-Maktoum, aims to create a sustainable and resilient food aid system to combat hunger and provide a safety net for vulnerable groups

Deliveroo users can donate the value of meals through the app in denominations ranging from AED 10-500 ($2.70-$136).

Main category:

Middle-East

---

Abu Dhabi University advances in World

University Rankings by Subject

Thu, 2023-03-30 19:27

ABU DHABI: Abu Dhabi University has advanced in the Quacquarelli Symonds World Rankings by Subject 2023 across a number of disciplines. The improvement in its ranking for business and management studies was particularly impressive, as it climbed at least 250 places to be placed between 251 and 300 globally and second in the UAE, reflecting its academic excellence, the Emirates News Agency reported on Thursday.

Main category:

Middle-East

---

UAE appoints a vice president and a crown prince for Abu Dhabi

Wed, 2023-03-29 21:17

DUBAI: The United Arab Emirates appointed a new vice president, two deputy rulers and a crown prince for Abu Dhabi on Wednesday. Mansour Bin Zayed will serve as vice president alongside Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, vice president, prime minister and ruler of Dubai, Emirates News Agency said.

President of the UAE, Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed has issued two Emiri decrees appointing Hazza bin Zayed as deputy ruler of Abu Dhabi, and Tahnoun bin Zayed as deputy ruler of Abu Dhabi. An Emiri decree appointed Khaled bin Mohamed bin Zayed as the crown prince of Abu Dhabi.

Main category:
Middle-East

---

Israel should be held accountable for Al-Aqsa incursions: Royal Committee for Jerusalem Affairs

Wed, 2023-03-29 20:10

AMMAN: Israel should be held accountable for its “criminal incursions” into Al-Aqsa Mosque, according to Royal Committee for Jerusalem Affairs Secretary-General Abdullah Kanaan.

In an interview with the Jordan News Agency on Wednesday, Kanaan said that daily incursions into the mosque are part of Israel’s growing attacks in Jerusalem and occupied Palestine.

Israeli policy reveals the “true face of its extreme right-wing government,” he said, adding that Tel Aviv’s leadership, programs and alliances are aimed at dividing Al-Aqsa Mosque.

Main category:

Middle-East

---

Israel offers hope of airport link to 2m Gaza residents

Wed, 2023-03-29 19:51

RAMALLAH: Israel is considering allowing 2 million residents of the Gaza Strip to use Ramon Airport in the Negev desert, which is due to be officially opened to Palestinians from the West Bank from Saturday.

Israeli sources told Arab News that the US pressured Israel during the last Sharm El-Sheikh summit on March 19 to permit Palestinians to use the airport, located near the Red Sea resort city of Eilat.

Main category:
Middle-East