

How currency collapse compounds Iranian regime's crisis of legitimacy

Wed, 2023-01-25 22:22

IRBIL, Iraqi Kurdistan: Iran's currency has been hitting record lows against the US dollar, which observers say is a reflection of the regime's increasing isolation on the international stage and the seriousness of the new EU sanctions against its paramilitary enforcer, the Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps.

'Coming storm' as expanded Israeli settler plan revealed

Wed, 2023-01-25 21:16

RAMALLAH: The Israeli government is planning unprecedented settlement activities in the West Bank, including the building of 18,000 housing units in the coming months, an Israeli newspaper revealed on Wednesday.

The move, which is seen as a serious threat to the Palestinians, was described by the Israeli newspaper Israel Today as a “revolution in Israeli politics in the West Bank” and a “mini-annexation.” Under Israel’s One Million Settlers plan, approval will be given to thousands of settlements put on hold during the past two-and-a-half years.
