

Milestone hit with over 16 million NHS App users

At London Tech Week, the Health and Social Care Secretary announced an increase in users on the NHS App, including those registering an organ donation decision