

Military families deployed overseas to save thousands in childcare costs as part of drive to boost military morale

Defence Secretary expands wraparound childcare support to service families deployed overseas. They will now receive 20 hours a week of funded before and after school childcare will save families around £3,400-a-year