

Minister for Development statement on climate investment

Minister for Development Anneliese Dodds made the following statement after chairing a roundtable discussion with leading experts at the Royal Society