

Minister meets young apprentices

Scotland's Minister for Employability and Training has welcomed a new partnership between SRUC and East Lothian Council that will give secondary school pupils the chance to work in SRUC's laboratories