

Minister of State: Maximising trade and opportunity for Northern Ireland's businesses is our priority

Last week we saw a significant milestone in implementing the Government's commitments under the Safeguarding the Union command paper published in February.