

Ministers appoint an interim chair to the PNCARRB

News story

Ministers have appointed Andy Bliss QPM as Interim Chair to the Police Remuneration Review Body and National Crime Agency Remuneration Review Bodies.

Andy Bliss is a current member of the Police Remuneration Review Body and National Crime Agency Remuneration Review Bodies (PNCARRB) and has been appointed for a period of 3 months until 21 November 2021, in accordance with the Governance Code on Public Appointments.

He is a former Chief Constable of Hertfordshire Constabulary and brings essential and extensive police leadership experience to the PRRB. He is a highly active and committed member of the review bodies, drawing on his policing experience and wider public sector knowledge.

The PRRB makes independent recommendations concerning the pay, allowances and conditions of police officers to the Home Secretary and the Northern Ireland Minister of Justice.

The NCARRB makes independent recommendations to the government on the pay and allowances of NCA officers designated with operational powers.

Published 17 August 2021