

Missing man in Kowloon City located

A man who went missing in Kowloon City has been located.

Lau San-yee, aged 73, went missing after he left a hostel on South Wall Road on November 8 afternoon. The hostel staff made a report to Police on the same day.

The man was located on Connaught Road West in Western District on December 5 morning. He sustained no injuries and no suspicious circumstances were detected.