

Missing man in Mong Kok located

A man who went missing in Mong Kok was located.

Tong Kai-wing, aged 54, went missing after he left an elderly home on Boundary Street on May 29 morning. Staff of the elderly home made a report to Police on May 30.

The man was located on Maple Street, Sham Shui Po yesterday (June 4) afternoon. He sustained no injuries and no suspicious circumstances were detected.