

Missing man in Mong Kok located

A man who went missing in Mong Kok has been located.

Chan Yuk-tung, aged 65, went missing after he left a caring centre on Ka Shin Street in the small hours on October 13. A staff member of the caring centre made a report to Police on the same day.

The man was located in a hospital on Waterloo Road, Yau Ma Tei on October 15. No suspicious circumstances were detected.