Missing man in Mong Kok located

A man who went missing in Mong Kok has been located.

Lo Po-tak, aged 59, went missing after he left a caring centre on Ivy Street on September 5 afternoon. The staff of caring centre made a report to Police on September 6.

The man returned to the caring centre this morning (September 14). He was sent to Kwong Wah Hospital for examination. No suspicious circumstances were detected.